1) Some local ATMs charge a fee when withdrawing cash. This is not fees charged by Lunar Way, and Lunar Way cannot prevent such fees.

2) This requires you to have exchanges your money to the used currency, prior to the transaction. If money is placed in EUR and used in USD, GBP, SEK or NOK, the money is exchanged in the moment of the transaction. In such case the currency rate of the day from Mastercard is used: <https://www.mastercard.us/en-us/consumers/get-support/convert-currency.html>

3) Some Payment acquirers may charge a fee for using your card for a payment. This is not fees charged by Lunar Way, and Lunar Way cannot prevent such fees. Remember always to pay in the local currency to minimize this risk.

4) All currency exchanges in the opening hours of the foreign exchange market are exchanged with the current exchange fee, offered by our partner. When the foreign exchange market is closed or inaccessible for an individual currency (for example weekends and banking holidays for each individual country), a minor fee is charged to cover Lunar Way from any potential losses and large fluctuations in the exchange rates. When the foreign exchange market is closed or inaccessible, you exchange with the latest accessible exchange rate including a fee of 0.5%.

5) The card can be used all over the world as long as your money is placed in EUR. When conducting payments in other currencies than the ones available, the currency rate of the day from Mastercard is used: <https://www.mastercard.us/en-us/consumers/get-support/convert-currency.html>. The exchange rate of the day will have an additional fee of 0.4% for each payment.
