My insurance purchase with Revolut

1. Why these terms are important

These terms set out Revolut's role and responsibilities when you buy insurance through the Revolut app as a standard user.

They are your legal agreement with us for this service. They tell you:

- ✓ how Revolut is responsible for enabling you to buy insurance products through the Revolut app; and
- ✓ how Revolut's chosen insurance partners are responsible for the actual insurance which you choose, and for helping you with any claim you make.

2. About us

In these terms, 'we' and 'us' means Revolut Travel Ltd.

When you buy insurance through the Revolut app, we are responsible for introducing you to our insurance partner and for collecting the amount you pay for your insurance, as described in these terms.

Revolut Travel Ltd is authorised and regulated by the UK's Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). It is registered on the FCA's Financial Services Register with Firm Reference Number 780586 and has its registered office at 9th Floor, 107 Cheapside, London, EC2V 6DN.

3. Buying insurance through the Revolut app

When you buy insurance through the Revolut app, we will:

- ✓ introduce you to our insurance partner for the relevant insurance product;
- ✓ provide you with access to the 'Insurance Product Information Document' (which sets out details of your insurance product) and other useful information before you buy your insurance product;
- ✓ provide the route for you to find the insurance product when you use the Revolut app (subject to availability) so that you can agree to buy it;
- ✓ collect the cost of your insurance product from you and in turn pay our insurance partner for your insurance cover; and
- ✓ provide you with ongoing access to the documentation for your insurance product (including the insurance policy between you and our insurance partner) via the Revolut app once you have bought it.

Our insurance partner will be directly responsible to you for:

- ✓ handling any claim you make; and
- ✓ making any payments to you after a successful claim. We don't advise you on whether a particular insurance product is appropriate for your needs and circumstances, but we do provide you with information about these insurance products which should help you make this decision. We also don't provide our staff with incentives for selling insurance products.

4. How we collect your payment

When you pay for an insurance product, we will collect the money from your Revolut account as explained on the app. We hold your payment as agent of our insurance partner, meaning your insurance is effectively paid for without delay when we collect the money from your account. Similarly, if you are entitled to a refund at any point, this money becomes yours when we actually pay it to you.

When you instruct the payment from your Revolut account, our parent company, Revolut Ltd, makes the payment to us from the e-money in your account in the normal way (as described in your 'Personal terms').

We agree with our insurance partners that they share part of the payment for your insurance product with us as commission for our services bringing them together with interested customers. This means that we act on behalf of our insurance partners and not you. You may ask us through in-app support if you wish to know the amount of any commission which we receive in respect of the insurance product which you buy.

5. Our insurance partners

At present our insurance partners are:

- ✓ White Horse Insurance Ireland dac; and
- ✓ simplesurance GmbH (underwritten by Allianz Global Assistance, AWP P&C S.A. – Dutch branch).

We may update this list from time to time.

We are not owned or controlled by our insurance partners in any way, and we do not own or control them in any way. They are not members of the Revolut corporate group. We simply choose them because they provide insurance products which we think our customers may find useful.
